

Somewhere to Begin

Sara Thomsen

C G Am F C G C

C G Am F
People say to me, oh, you gotta be crazy

C Am G
How can you sing in times like these

C G
Don't you read the news

Am F
Don't you know the score

C
How can you sing

Am G
when so many others grieve

C G
People say to me

Am F C
what kind of fool believes that a song

Am G
will make a difference in the end

C G Am F
By way of a reply, I say a fool such as I

C G F
Who sees a song as somewhere to begin

G Am F
A song is somewhere to begin

C
The search for something

Am G worth believing in

C G
If changes are to come

Am F
there are things that must be done

C G C
And a song is somewhere to begin

C G Am F C C G
C G Am F C G C

G G Am F
People say to me, oh, you gotta be crazy

C Am G
How can you dream in times like these

C G
Don't you read the news

Am F
Don't you know the score

C
How can you dream

Am G

when so many others grieve

C G
People say to me

Am F C
what kind of fool believes that a dream

Am G
will make a difference in the end

C G Am F
By way of a reply, I say a fool such as I

C G F
Who sees a dream as somewhere to begin

G Am F
A dream is somewhere to begin

C
The search for something

Am G worth believing in

C G
If changes are to come

Am F
there are things that must be done

C G C
And a dream is somewhere to begin

C G Am F C C G
C G Am F C G C

C G Am F
People say to me, oh, you gotta be crazy

C Am G
How can you love in times like these

C G
Don't you read the news

Am F
Don't you know the score

C
How can you love

Am G
when so many others grieve

C G
People say to me

Am F C
what kind of fool believes that love

Am G
will make a difference in the end

C G Am F
By way of a reply, I say a fool such as I

C G F
Who sees love as somewhere to begin

G                  Am F
And love is somewhere to begin

C
The search for something

Am                  G
worth believing in

C                  G
If changes are to come

Am                  F
there are things that must be done

C          G
And love is somewhere

Am          F
And a dream is somewhere

C          G                  C
And a song is somewhere to begin
