Holding up the Sky

A Song of Morning

Daniel Speyer

CC-SA-BY

91
G C Em Dm Am B° Am B° G C
pain have found: Who'd build a castle in the sky Must plant the feet on so - lid ground.
so - lar ray. To leave the fu-ture warnings clear Of all you wish you'd known to - day..
101
C F Dm G G7 F Dm Em C C
To test and test each strand and curl, An - ti - ci - pate how wind may blow, To know with
To keenly spot and stout-ly face The worms that lurk be - neath the deep. To know and 111
E5 G B° Am F G C Dm Em F G fear the wide strange world, And lit - tle trust what lore you know. So you can be... choose when to let fall A flake of snow you can-not keep. And you will be...
122
3 F E° B♭ F Gm Dm E° Am C
There once was a dream of the youth And a game that chil dren could play What re-131
E° B♭ Gm C F△ B♭ E° Am C8
mains is a glo-ri-ous truth Is that such a high price to pay?