Holding up the Sky

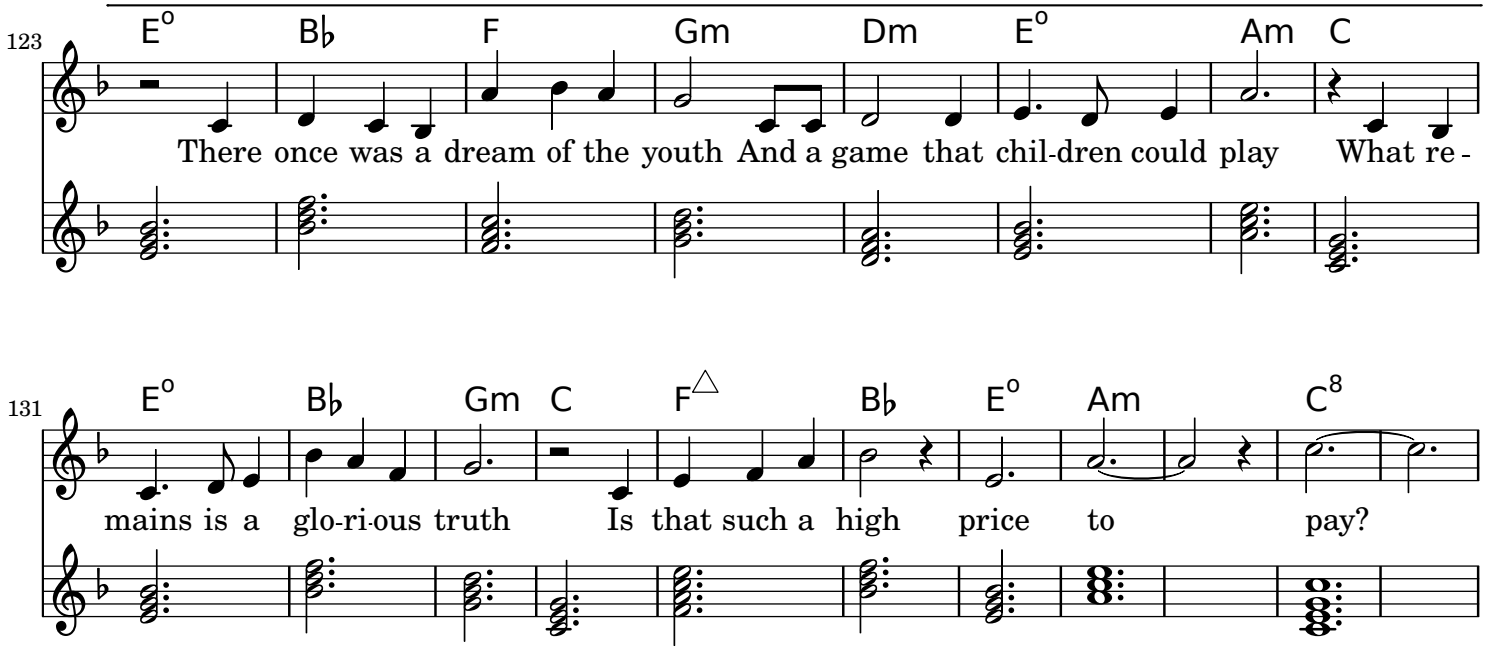

A Song of Morning

Daniel Speyer

CC-SA-BY

58
G C G C Am G Dm B° Am
ly... Holding up the sky Still holding up the sky To crawl so men may fly 71
Em C B° G F Dm C Am G
Each step to ve-ri - fy Though de-cades may pass by Always hold-ing up the sky 83
G C E5 G F5 Am G E5 G C
1.–2.
To yearn for rest and still ask why To heed what toil and pain have found: Who'd
To hold like kin those too who bear A fel - low cloud or so - lar ray. To 93
Em Dm Am B° Am B° G C C F build a ca-stle in the sky Must plant the feet on so - lid ground. To test and leave the fu-ture war-nings clear Of all you wish you'd known to - day.. To keen-ly 103
Dm G G7 F Dm Em C C E5 test each strand and curl, An - ti - ci - pate how wind may blow, To know with fear the spot and stout-ly face The worms that lurk be - neath the deep. To know and choose when 112
G B° Am F G C Dm Em F G
3.
F wide strange world, And lit - tle trust what lore you know. So you can be... to let fall A flake of snow you can-not keep. And you will be...

123
E° B♭ F Gm Dm E° Am C
There once was a dream of the youth And a game that chil-dren could play What remains is a glo-ri-ous truth Is that such a high price to pay?
131
E° B♭ Gm C F△ B♭ E° Am C8