C G Am F
People say to me, oh, you gotta be crazy
C Am G
How can you sing in times like these
C G
Don’t you read the news
Am F
Don’t you know the score
C
How can you sing
Am G
when so many others grieve
C G
People say to me
Am F C
what kind of fool believes that a song
Am G
will make a difference in the end
C G Am F
By way of a reply, I say a fool such as I
C G F
Who sees a song as somewhere to begin
G Am F
A song is somewhere to begin
C
The search for something
Am G
worth believing in
C G
If changes are to come
Am F
there are things that must be done
C G C
And a song is somewhere to begin

C G Am F C C G

How can you dream in times like these

How can you dream
